

EDELWEISS

LODGE and RESORT

GROUPS AND CONFERENCES

AN ARMED FORCES RECREATION CENTER RESORT
LOCATED IN GARMISCH-PARTENKIRCHEN, GERMANY

MEANINGFUL GET-TOGETHERS

With the inspiring Alps as your backdrop, along with our attentive staff, delicious food, secure facility and state of the art audio/visual technology, just imagine what you can accomplish. Hosting a conference at Edelweiss Resort, facilitates our ability to provide affordable vacation experiences for service members and their families. Those memorable vacation experiences help to keep our military resilient and focused on the mission. Let us help accomplish your mission with our flexible meeting configurations from small groups to large banquets for private and secure meetings. Our acoustic absorbing walls can also accommodate secure classified meetings, all in a relaxed and productive setting for you and your attendees.

Our conference venues include more than 17,000 square feet of function space for up to 500 attendees. Edelweiss Lodge and Resort is a memorable location for galas, unit balls, chaplain events, training and multi-national gatherings. Edelweiss Lodge and Resort is by far the most economical, and well-equipped conference venue in Europe. We recently updated our audio / visual equipment with the most modern remote-control lighting systems, BOSE conference PA sound system, and drop down ceiling projectors. Our full-service coordinators ensure every event detail is covered from beginning to end.

Complete meeting packages include:

Dedicated Conference Coordinators / Hotel Room / Meeting Space / Full Meal Plan
Audio and Visual Equipment / Coffee Breaks / Team Building Activities

We have worked with thousands of military organizations, chaplain groups, religious retreats, unit functions and all the branches of service. We have the experience and quality facilities to ensure your event is successful from start to finish. Families can also stay with you in the room at no extra cost to help balance work and quality time spent with them.

Let our conference planners customize a program that involves much more than just meetings.

DIVERSE DINING OPTIONS

Your food and beverage choices are as diverse as the opportunities to enjoy them, from casual to full service, including regional fare, all-American dishes and cuisine from around the world. Internationally trained culinary professionals and a team of English speaking food and beverage servers offer a range of custom designed menus, themed events and services. Our newly renovated Pullman Cafe serves local roasted coffee, salads, grilled sandwiches and more. The perfect place to stop and unwind with a drink and an incredible view of the Bavarian Alps after the meetings are over.

WORK HARD, PLAY HARD

The meetings are over, now it is time to relax. Bring teamwork, communication, problem solving and decision making to life. Take advantage of our extensive tour and recreation programs or plan team building exercises like white water rafting or rock climbing. Recreation is an integral part of any effective meeting and we can custom design a variety of extra activities for your group. Try out our new 9 hole miniature golf course for some friendly competition after the meetings have finished. This variety of diversions to refresh and revitalize is the perfect combination for a successful conference or meeting.
